Dear Mr Kirby,

Your letter of the 15th July, inadvertently, was set aside unopened until last Friday. I must apologise for the delay in replying but wish to advise that the accommodation you require will be reserved for you on the 15th 16th & 17th instant.

Should you find time to drop a note your expected time of arrival on the 15th would be appreciated and we can arrange dinner on the following days to suit your activities.

Yours faithfully,
D. D. Leahy.
